

NVST has a streetwise savoir-fair that infiltrates her sets, infusing them with the energy of a dark dancefloor of sweaty walls. She's a dj that doesn't fear to put the crowd in 'uncomfortable' positions, defying what they think they know. Her style thrives on the clash of genres and textures, that come altogether as a raw, acidic unity that demands a frenetic dance ritual.

Coming from the Swiss illegal party scene, the values that move NVST approach to DJing remains distant to conventionalisms and commercial approaches.

NVST is part of "Statement" crew, "Female:Pressure" family, she's co-running the French label "Big Science", has bimestrial residency on "LYL" Radio.
