

Bio:

Kejeblos is a man of big taste. A man embracing the wide. Cleverly exhibiting Swiss Afro Boogie gems, Japanese minimal classics, Post-Bossa or subtle Chicago House, this DJ from Zurich could easily write a doctoral thesis about the art of record digging. As he says himself, being so much into records doesn't really help him getting his humanities degree finished at the University of Zurich. A resident of Zurich's club Zukunft and co-founder of Phantom Island Records, Kejeblos belongs to that invincible circle of friends, whose members CCO, Wavetest and Late Invitation are doing the wickedest Chicago House in Liechtenstein, sorry, Switzerland.
